At Cape Coral Animal Shelter (CCAS), we are dedicated to providing the best possible care for every animal that comes through our doors. Our goal is always to give each pet the opportunity to find a loving, permanent home.

However, we want you to be aware that after a thorough medical and behavioral evaluation, some animals may be determined to have conditions that significantly impact their quality of life or make them unsafe to place in a home. In these cases, and only when absolutely necessary, Cape Coral Animal Shelter's management, veterinary, and animal care teams may make the difficult decision to humanely euthanize the animal. This decision is never made lightly and is always approached with compassion and the pet's best interest at heart.

We encourage you to be open and honest in sharing your pet's full medical and behavioral history, as this information helps us make the most informed and humane decisions possible.

Thank you for trusting us with your pet.

I have read and understand the information above regarding the possible outcomes for my pet after surrendering to Cape Coral Animal Shelter.

The cost to care and re-home pets can be in the hundreds of dollars for each animal that comes into our care. CCAS is a private, non-profit organization that does not receive funding from national or government agencies. While we do not require a donation to take your pet into our care, if you would like to make a monetary donation to help subsidize the cost of your pet, we would greatly appreciate it.
